MELANCHOLY ACCIDENT. On Wednesday the 3d inst, Mr. Daniel D. Spencer, went into the woods for the purpose of falling timber, near Carbondale. In falling a tree which it appears partly lodged against another--several limbs were broken off, and thereby precipitated back, one or more of which struck Mr. Spencer upon the side and shoulder, and caused his immediate death. He has left an afflicted family to mourn his untimely exit. (November 10, 1830, p. 2)
